

Donation to Veteran Groups

Public Law 80-421 (U.S.C. 2572) authorizes the Secretaries of the Military Departments to donate or loan certain types of surplus military equipment to recognized, selected recipients.

The following organizations are authorized to acquire, through donation or loan, obsolete or condemned combat material, books, manuscripts, works of art, drawings, plans and models for historical, ceremonial and display purposes:

- a. Veterans organizations. Requests for loan or donation of property submitted by posts or local units of recognized veterans' organizations shall include the written approval of their national headquarters, if they are organized in that manner.
- b. Soldiers Monument Associations
- c. State Museums
- d. Incorporated Museums
- e. Municipal Museums
- f. Sons of Veterans Reserves

Requests for equipment should be addressed to the appropriate military service command, as follows:
